

Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS)
Symposium
Cities, Cars, Roads, Wildlife, People: Transportation You!

Date: October 15, 2011 (Saturday)

Place: Matthews Suite, Reitz Union (4th Floor)
University of Florida

Time: 6 pm to 9 pm, Reception to follow presentations

Guest Speakers:

- Marsha Anderson Bomar, City Council, Duluth, Ga.
- Patricia Cramer, Research Assistant Professor, Utah State University, (transp. ecology/wildlife)
- Noranne B. Downs, Secretary, FDOT, District Five
- Debora M. Rivera, Director, Transportation Operations, FDOT, District Six

FREE EVENT! Limited Seating

RSVP by September 30, 2011 @ dimichalaka@ufl.edu

The goal of the symposium is to expose students (especially females) to transportation-related careers, and also to make this a social networking evening among established professionals and university-level students. A panel of four professional women in transportation-related careers will discuss their chosen fields and the amazing possibilities the transportation profession has to offer.

Parking Information: <http://www.union.ufl.edu/information/directions>

WTS UF Student Chapter Website: <https://sites.google.com/site/wtsufstudentchapter/home>

WTS UF Student Chapter